

Carson Student Body Makes Social Debut

By IRENE LEVENWOOD
Carson High School
Carson High has made its debut at last!
During December, Carson High and its student body played host to some 70 student leaders of the Marine League schools. The students were attending the section B meeting of the California Associated Student Councils Organization (CASCO).
The meeting was originally scheduled for Jordan High School, but Jordan is now undergoing complete remodeling. Holding the meeting at Carson was an impossibility, so the Jordan representatives asked to have the meeting on the Carson campus.

an opportunity to see the new campus.
The theme of the meeting kept with Carson's newness. Storks, baby bottles, and miniature diapers were included in the decorations. Each of the delegates was taken on a tour of the campus facilities.
Following a general business meeting, the delegates broke into several discussion groups to consider such topics as student courts, clean campus drives, social activities, and communications.
The sessions were presided over by Robert James, president of the Marine League Council and a student at Jordan High.
All in all, this CASCO meeting was said to be the most successful in history, a true tribute to Carson High.

CARSON STUDENTS were enthusiastic, and delegates had

State Employment Department Offers Trainee Examinations

Opportunities for recent college graduates in the California Department of Employment are available through the state's civil service program, according to Murray Love, manager of the Torrance office of the department.
Love said an examination for the position of Employment Security Trainee will be conducted by the State Personnel Board on Feb. 15, 1964. Final date to file for the examination tomorrow.

Prospective trainees must have graduated within the last five years or have a current status as a college senior in order to be eligible for the examination.
Salaries range from $486 to $510 per month. Advances to other positions are possible through promotional examinations in the department.

Pacific State Bank Reports Record Income

Earnings at Pacific State Bank reached a record high of $399,869 for the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1963, reports Robert F. Gooch, chairman of the board.
Net earnings for the year were equal to $1.37 per share on 291,372 shares of stock. The totals represent a 12.5 per cent increase over earnings for fiscal 1962.
During the 12-month period, total resources of the bank increased to $40,549,292, up 14 per cent over last year. Deposits totaled $36,462,159, up more than 15 per cent over the previous year.

Kogan Gifts Displayed in USC Gallery

Recent acquisitions by the University of Southern California's department of Fine Arts are now on display in the Fisher Gallery on the campus. The exhibit will remain through Feb. 14.
Gallery hours are noon to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. More than 80 items, including drawings, paintings, and other objects of art are included in the exhibition.
Among the donors of objects in the collection are Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Kogan of Torrance. The Kogans were guests at the opening reception Thursday evening.

Carol Gordon Serves Young Republicans

Carol Gordon of Torrance has been named to the board of directors of the Los Angeles County Young Republicans, according to Donald McDaniel, president. She will serve as parliamentarian.
Other appointments approved by the 1964 elected officers include: Edward Cross, James Kline, Richard Mayer, Ted Thomas, Frank Pistone, Bill Beer, Erwin Fuller, James Blake, Robert Spare, Denny Barr and Mort Cook.

TB, Syphilis Noted

One case each of tuberculosis and syphilis were reported in the city of Torrance to the Los Angeles County Health Department for the week ending Jan. 4.

Bear Winner of Sales Contest

Ben L. "Ted" Bear Jr. of 32 Portuguese Bend Road, Rolling Hills, has been named winner of a national sales contest sponsored by New York Life Insurance Co.
Regional Vice President Charles F. Edwards said Bear led the company with $1,100,000 paid volume on repeat life insurance sales during the company's recent "policy-holder" month.

Make two delicious dishes from just two pounds of Ground Beef using our AUSTRALIAN BEEF & SAVORY RICE DINNER recipe! The meat balls, which use part of the Ground Beef, owe their light tender texture to the magic of egg whites incorporated in the mixture. The Savory Rice Casserole uses the remaining meat and is skillfully blended with vegetables and sharp Cheddar Cheese. Both dishes are baked together to make a complete budget-wise oven meal. Pick up your free copy today and see if you don't agree that it has great "purse and palate" appeal!
